

Band	Detail
7	An analysis of the argument has been made and the explanation and description shows higher level understanding. There is a clear and logical structure of the essay which has shown a 2 sided argument and leads to a well thought out conclusion.
6	A clear judgement has been made using the information and evidence put forward in their argument. The explanation is precise and helps towards the judgement.
5	Has started to explain the reasons linked to the question. Evidence to support each point given and both sides of the argument have been presented. A slight judgement has been made and some support has been given.
4	Has described reasons using a paragraph structure. Evidence and information has been given to support the reasons put forward. Judgement is given but it is stated and not supported.
3	Has shown the ability to identify reasons linked to the question. Follows a basic paragraph structure. No judgement given or given but weak/not supported.